OUR JOURNAL

We would not be a good historical society if we did not record our own history. In this issue of the UPDATE, our journal begins with the month of September 2004. Program chair Joanne Lawrence had us begin our fall season of programs with a delightful presentation by Susie Glunz-Holtgreive. Mrs. Holtgreive recapped the history of the Glunz Family starting in Germany, continuing to Chicago and concluding in Grayslake. During her presentation the audience learned that the business evolved from a beer bottling and distributing business that started in Chicago in 1888 to the winery that began in Grayslake in 1993. At the conclusion of her talk, Mrs. Holtgreive presented the Society with a bottle of wine made from raspberries raised on the Glunz farm on Washington Street in Grayslake. This Grayslake business has a store on Belvidere Road in Grayslake as well as a store in Long Grove, Illinois.

The September monthly open house featured the baby pictures of village officials and community leaders. The Historical Society Board also included their baby pictures. The Museum staff thanks the following people for loaning us their baby pictures: Dr. Kurt Anderson, Superintendent School District 46; Dr. Elizabeth McDonald, Superintendent School District 127; Larry Herzog, Grayslake Police Chief; Tim Perry, Mayor Village of Grayslake; Steve Lawrence, President Grayslake Chamber of Commerce and Industry; Russ Christian, Avon Township Supervisor; Shirley Christian, Executive Director Grayslake Chamber of Commerce; Jeff Werfel, Trustee Village of Grayslake; Terese Douglass, Trustee Village of Grayslake; Paul Reblin, Trustee Village of Grayslake; Bruce Bassett, Trustee Village of Grayslake; Rhett Taylor, Trustee Village of Grayslake; Joanne Lawrence, Clerk Village of Grayslake; Bob Lashbrook, Director Grayslake Park District; Georgeanna Ott, President AARP; Mike Desko, President Grayslake Exchange Club; Charlene Desko, President Grayslake Junior Woman's Club; Charlotte Renehan, President Grayslake Historical Society; Jim Rockwell, President Grayslake Lions Club; Bob Wegge, Commander Grayslake VFW; Donald Potter, Commander Grayslake American Legion; Hank deGroh, Incoming Commander Grayslake American Legion;

Nancy Rinker, President Grayslake Garden Club; Vito Andriola, Head Football Coach Grayslake High School; Diane Iwema, President Grayslake Exchangettes; Robbie Thomas, Head Librarian Grayslake Area Public Library; Mike Hirsch, Girls Basketball Coach Grayslake High School; Sue Facklam, President School Board District 46; Michael Gregoczyk, President Grayslake Kiwanis Club; Sharon Parola, President Grayslake Woman's Club; and Chris McClain, President School Board District 127. Tracy Nielsen of Grayslake won a gift certificate and a Grayslake Historical Society membership for identifying the most baby pictures. Good job, Tracy!

October was an extremely busy month for the Society. October third was a beautiful Sunday and a great crowd came to be informed at the Seventh Annual Living History Tour of the Grayslake Cemetery. Charlotte Renehan as Maria Forvor introduced Connie Dunbar who portrayed Annie Fox, a former President of the Grayslake Cemetery Association. Mrs. Fox explained to the audience the history of tombstones. Reverend Orrell Ruth was introduced as Reverend Collins, a former pastor of the Grayslake Congregational Church. The pastor led the crowd to the various grave sites. Shawn Vogel portrayed Lee Williams who married into the well-known Harvey Family. He reminded us that he liked photography. Rich Anderson as Fred Kuebker told about his signing the petition for Grayslake to be incorporated and informed the audience that he was responsible for the construction of the building on the northwest corner of Whitney and Center Street. Judith Fuller Morrill was portrayed by Jane Tiffany-Hansen. Mrs. Morrill was one of the earliest settlers in the area. Nellie Frazier once worked in the Grayslake Hotel while her husband built boats. Her story was told by Carol Roselli-Rasmussen. Grayslake High School student Katelyn Rasmussen enacted Grace Schlosser Walker's sad story of dying as a young bride. Bryan Gutraj as Bill Collins reminded us of the history of Bill's Tavern. The reactors' performances with their historical knowledge brought forth many positive comments. Later in the month a group of Girl Scouts were given a tour of the cemetery.

The October tenth Open House was the grand opening of the dollhouse and boys' toys exhibit. Seven dollhouses were on display in the upper level of the Museum. They spanned six decades and were made of cardboard, metal and wood. They were homemade, manufactured and from kits. The main floor of the Museum exhibited the boys' toys including a moving ferris wheel. Thanks goes out to Phyllis Stickels, Lori Baumgartner, Dorothy Groth, Charlotte Renehan, Dale Wendt and Pat and Ken Yopp for helping to make this exhibit a success.

The dual projector slide presentation of "Grayslake Then and Now" was given to the third graders at Woodview School on October twelfth. The following Thursday five classes of third graders from the school walked to the Museum and had a tour with docents Florence Carlsen, Joanne Lawrence, Ruth Woodruff, Phyllis Stickels and Dorothy Groth. During the same week Joanne and Dorothy gave a tour to a scout group.

The Society was represented in the annual Grayslake Community High School Homecoming Parade on October sixteenth with Cheryl Lawrence Mount driving her fifties Chevrolet truck. After the parade many alumni stopped in at the Museum for coffee and conversation. We had people from Arizona, Massachusetts and places in between. The Class of 1954 was well represented.

The topic of the October meeting of the Society was St. Mary's Church and Fremont Center. We learned that the history of Fremont Township and of St. Mary's Church parallels. The story was told by Tom Wagner with the help of Marianne Obenauf Meyer. People in the audience contributed to the evening's enjoyment with their anecdotes.

President Charlotte Renehan gave a program on the history and activities of the Grayslake Historical Society and Museum to members of Grayslake's AARP at their monthly meeting. A short program was given to the Grayslake Junior Woman's Club about ghosts in Grayslake and the area.

Joanne Lawrence and Lori Baumgartner represented the Society at the St. Gilbert Church Home Show. A member of the Society attended the Lake-McHenry County Historical Alliance held at the Fox Lake-Grant Township Historical Society Museum in Ingleside.

During the month of October the cemetery leaves were raked by Society members Charlie Groth, Pat and Ken Yopp, Linda Fassbinder, Sandy and Kurtis Smyth, Charlotte Renehan, Sean Thoms, Ron Roselli and Joanne Lawrence with the help of students from the Boy Scouts and the Grayslake High School.

Over three hundred children with their parents stopped by the Museum to receive a pencil and candy during Downtown Grayslake's Trick and Treat event. Florence Carlsen and Joanne Lawrence enjoyed greeting the children.

It was the consensus of the audience at the November meeting of the Society that Attorney Ron Runkle should have been their history teacher. He made the story of the Lewis and Clark Expedition an interesting tale.

The Museum was open on the second Sundays of November and December. The December Open House featured Santa in the Museum's vintage sleigh. Approximately sixty children and adults came to the Museum to have the youth get a free picture with Santa and receive a candy cane. A challenge class from Prairie Crossing School came to the Museum before the holidays to do research. They are interested in the people who were the early settlers on the land where Prairie Crossing is located.

During the 2004 year 1785 people toured the Museum. This number does not include people who toured the cemetery, came to use the archives or just stopped in to visit with the office staff.

OUR DATE BOOK

The 2005 calendar for the Grayslake Historical Society and Grayslake Municipal Historical Museum is filling up. Remember that all meetings of the Society are held at 7:30 pm in the Community Room of the State Bank of the Lakes, 50 Commerce Drive, Grayslake. The Museum is open the second Sunday of each month from 1:30 pm to 3:30 pm and every Thursday from 9:00 am to 2:00 pm.

The Society Board made the decision not to hold a general meeting in February. Under the original by-laws, meetings were not to be held in February but somehow the month was added. As the UPDATE goes to press the following dates are filled.

On Wednesday, February 9 the Society will hold a fund raiser in the Community Room of the State Bank of the Lakes at 7:00 pm. The public is invited to view "Grayslake, Then and Now: A Pictorial Presentation". This dual slide projector program has not been shown to the general public since Grayslake's Centennial in 1995. The presentation shows pictures of how Grayslake looked years ago and what it looks like in recent years.

A narrator will detail the history of the area. The program will cost $5.00 per person. Admission for senior citizens and Grayslake Historical Society members is $3.00. Refreshments will be served. Invite your friends to join us in an evening of looking at the past and seeing the present.

Saturday, February 12 is Downtown Grayslake's Winterfest from 9:00 am to 3:00 pm. The Museum will host a quilt display. Jill Martin of the Warren Township Historical Society will loan us some of her collection of quilts to exhibit in the upper level of the Museum. There will be some pre 1900 quilts but most will be from the 1930s. Mrs. Martin be at the Museum from 10:00 am to noon and 1:00 pm to 2:00 pm to talk about the quilts. She was a volunteer for the quilt registration program in 1995 at the Lake County Discovery Museum. She has given presentations for the Warren Township Historical Society, Waukegan Historical Society, McHenry County Historical Society and Grayslake Woman's Club.

Once again children will be invited to decorate a quilt square to be incorporated into a full size quilt. This year the children will draw on a white square. The white squares will be complimented with red squares and blue squares to create a patriotic theme in support of our troops. This activity will be in the schoolroom of the Museum. In addition, don't miss the quilt walk in the downtown store windows. The theme of this year's walk is "Peace and Patriotism". The Historical Society Board helps with this part of Winterfest.

Dolls and Pezs will share the spotlight at the Sunday, February 13 monthly open house. We have been promised a variety of dolls, including Shirley Temple dolls from different decades, a cornhusk doll, Cabbage Patch dolls, Deanna Durbin and many more. Remember Ellen Diminck's Barbie Doll collection? She also collects Pez containers and will share them with us.

One way that the Society earns money for its projects is by taking part in Jewel/Osco's Shop and Share Program. Please use the enclosed coupons on Monday, February 14; Tuesday, February 15 or Wednesday, February 16. The Society receives five percent of the total bill before taxes are added.

The Wednesday, March 9 monthly meeting of the Society will feature Jean Hastings of the Libertyville-Mundelein Historical Society. Jean, a former member of the College of Lake County faculty, will present a slide program, "Great Lakes Lighthouse Lore". Lighthouses have tales to tell: stories of shipwrecks, ghosts and rescues; stories of the people who keep the lights burning. Some of these lighthouses are now automated while others have fallen into disrepair. Jean will take us on an armchair journey around the three upper Great Lakes as we see the sites and hear the stories.

Monthly open houses of the Museum will be held Sunday, March 13 and Sunday, April 10.

On Wednesday, April 13 the Society will honor the Seventy-fifth Anniversary of St. Gilbert Church. Reverend Robert Beaben of St. Gilbert Church will present a program about the history of the church. The movement for a Catholic Church in our area began in the 1920s at Druce Lake. St. Gilbert Parish was formed in June of 1930. The first mass was performed in the building opposite the present church that now houses a cleaners. In 1932 the first brick church was dedicated. A larger church was subsequently built and rebuilt until today the church grounds encompass the parish residence, a school and chapels. Reverend Beaben will give us the details along with the stories that create an interesting history of a vibrant church.

May is the last month for the doll and Pez displays. The monthly open house is on Sunday, May 8.

Wednesday, May 11 is the last meeting of the Society's spring session of programs. Wayne Munn of Waukegan will take the audience on a virtual tour of an "1939 Time Capsule Apartment". In 2003 through a hole cut in a tin ceiling, an apartment and beauty saloon were uncovered on the second floor of 119 N. Genesee Street in Waukegan. Mr. Munn took numerous pictures and with the help of Beverly Millard of the Waukegan Historical Society researched the room's contents and the family who lived there. This program will take on the air of a Nancy Drew/Hardy Boys adventure. The program has been presented twice in Waukegan, both times to a standing room audience only. It should be a great conclusion to the Society's spring session of programs.

The Museum will host an artist's display during Grayslake's Arts Festival on Saturday, June 18.

Watch for the Society in Grayslake's annual Memorial Day parade, at Summerdays and at other Grayslake events.

Meetings of the Grayslake Historical Society Board are open to members of the Society and to the general public. Everyone's input is welcome. The Board meets the first Wednesday of each month at 7:00 pm in the upper level of the Grayslake Municipal Historical Museum.

The Society received monetary donations. The Grayslake Woman's Club presented the Society with a check for $100 that will be added to the building fund. A donation of $1000 was accepted from an anonymous donor for the building fund. A $500 grant was given to the Society by the Esper A. Petersen Foundation. The Grayslake Historical Society is very appreciative of the generous donations.

MEMORIALS

The list of names on our memorial plaque continues to grow. Since September 1, 2004 the Society has lost several valued members and friends. Member George Miller died this fall. Memorials have been established for departed Society members Vernie Plotz and Dale E. Craig. Sue Behm Blasius, Jeanne Micucci, Marge Kipp Brenton and Robert C. Smith were friends of the Society and memorials have been started for them. The memorials for Bill Hook and Jeanne Frank continue to grow. All these people will be missed but they will be remembered. They will be remembered for their friendship and their contributions to the history of Grayslake.

CANNING FACTORY BOOK

The Society's publication The Canning Factories of Grayslake became a Christmas present for many people. After its publication Bette Hook Best came to the Museum and shared this story:

"My father Irving Hook would not allow my mother to serve canned peas or canned sweet corn at our house. We could have these vegetables, fresh or frozen, but not canned. As a young lad my father worked at the factory. He remembered the foreign items which often became a part of the canning process."

Although this story missed being told in the book there are others for the reader to enjoy. The book is available for twenty dollars with the full amount going to help maintain the Museum and support its projects.

LAKEVIEW MEMORY

Those of you who have a copy of the award winning Memories of Lakeview School may wish to add this memory to your book. This memory is from Laurel Schaefer Trent who graduated from Lakeview with the Class of '62. It is written here for all to enjoy.

"From a very young age Lakeview School held a strong attraction for me. My mother tells me that after my sister left for school one day, I set out on my tricycle following her down the block to Route 120. After my mother ran to catch up with me in time, I emphatically informed her that I was going to school! Once there legitimately, I felt quite at home and very safe. I made lasting friendships and have fond memories.

"In kindergarten, when Mrs. Morse opened up the sand box with the beautiful white sand, I was always curious about where it came from; I loved playing in it. The classroom post office was a treat, but I was frustrated that the girls couldn't help construct it!

"In first grade Mrs. Stefanesen certainly caught my attention by making me move my desk to the front of the room to prevent my talking so much! Even though it was a punishment, I loved sitting right beside a wonderful fairy tale map, illustrated with familiar storybook creatures.

"I remember buying paper and pencils at the 'school' which was just a desk in the hall on the way to the gym. For only a nickel or dime, I could buy treasures.

"Christmas time was another highlight because we assembled in the gym to sing Christmas carols, and I was all aquiver with excitement because it was so exciting to sing 'Santa Claus Is Coming To Town,' and to know that at any second he could come right through the main entrance to the gym and Ho, Ho, Ho, right down that aisle.

"In fifth grade Mr. Schmidt's class was housed in the 'boiler room' because we were staying temporarily at Lakeview before moving over to Woodview. It didn't matter where we were: Mr. Schmidt's fabulous personality made all that happened in fifth grade thoroughly compelling and exciting.

"I thought that the hot dogs served on Hot Dog Day were, and still are, the best hot dogs I have ever eaten. Finally, I will never forget Bill the Janitor. He could be brusque, a little scary, yet somehow one knew that he cared; he really did like us kids"

VOLUNTEERS

The Grayslake Historical Society could not accomplish all of its goals without the help of volunteers. Volunteers have presented programs at Society meetings, helped with special displays at the Museum, portrayed early residents at the annual Living History Tour of the Grayslake Cemetery, baked cookies, cleaned the Museum and Annex, repaired items, moved furniture, given tours, filed obituaries, raked leaves, participated in special events and done many other tasks. These individuals range in age from preteen to senior citizens. Not everyone was a member of the Historical Society. A big THANK YOU is extended to the following:

SOCIETY BOARD AND OFFICERS

The Grayslake Historical Society Board position which was vacated when Leonard Burge moved to Naperville, Illinois has been filled by Ron Roselli. Ron recently moved to Grayslake's Prairie Crossing from Wheeling. Ron attended elementary and high schools in Grayslake. Many of you remember the Roselli family when they owned and operated Rudolph's Outlet Store, the store with the best shoe bargains.

At the March 9 meeting the Society's election of officers will be held. Those positions which will be up for election are president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer and two board positions. A nominating committee will submit a slate but nominations may be made from the floor.

A PAGE FROM THE PAST

This issue of UPDATE recalls a story which appear in the November 21, 1907 edition of the Grayslake Times. The article is titled "Coming To the Front: Grayslake Steadily Gaining in Size, Beauty and Importance."

"With much pride the Times is able to inform its readers that the village of Grayslake is in a most satisfactory financial condition at present. There are probably but few villages in the country that can make a better showing.

"Not a cent of indebtedness stands against Grayslake and the treasury contains over $1,500, and over $2,000 coming in by the first of next May. A year ago about $2,000 worth of gravel was placed on the roads inside the corporation, which has all been paid for, numerous hard brick cross-walks have been laid and several more will be put down as soon as the walks now ordered by the village board have been built, and many other important improvements have been made and paid for by the village board.

"But few new buildings have been built here during the past season, owing principally to the high prices of materials, but this has been partially off set by many improvements on residence and business buildings, and the laying of over three-fourths of a mile of cement and plank walks, with more to be built in the spring.

There is not a vacant store building in town and very few residence buildings are unoccupied. Grayslake is blessed with a first-class electric light system, has one of the best volunteer fire companies and apparatus in the country, a large and well arranged village hall, an opera house that seats 650 people, splendid schools, prosperous churches and handsome residences with beautiful lawns and lots of shade trees. A road has been graded through Wicks' Grove addition and Thomson Bros. Lakeside addition has been surveyed and platted. The prospects at present are that several handsome residences will be built on both these subdivisions before another autumn. This village also contains an enterprising class of merchants, most of them liberal advertisers, and who enjoy a large trade from the farmers in this vicinity and citizens of adjoining villages. A glance at their ads in this issue of the of the Times will convince you that our neighbors show wisdom in coming here to trade. We are certainly living in a good town and among a fine class of people. Hang up your hammer and be a booster from now on. Grayslake has got a good start and she is going to move ahead. You can't stop her.

"When the writer landed here, two years ago last April, there were six vacant business buildings and many unoccupied dwellings. We had faith in Grayslake's future then, and we have still greater faith now and are confident that with our two railroads and another in sight our village will develop into the second city in Lake County within the next ten years."

Editor's notes: This article was written a little over eight years after Grayslake incorporated. Fred Battershall, a department store owner, was the mayor in 1907, having been seated in 1905. Wick's Subdivision is in the area of today's Oak Street, between Slusser and Lake Streets. Lakeside Subdivision is on the west shore of Grayslake, near Getchell, Bluff, Greenwood and Apple Avenues. The opera house was located in the upper level of the building that today houses The Dance Connection and Angulos Restaurant. The third railroad never came to fruition. It was to have been an electric line from Waukegan to Fox Lake. St. Andrew Episcopal Church service held its first service in 1907 in a local hall while the Congregationalists and Methodists had buildings. In 1910 the Village of Grayslake boasted a population of 603.
